

SYDAFRIKA: ORGANISERING FÖR MÄNSKLIGA RÄTTIGHETER - RAF 2016-19

Programme Objective	Indicators ¹	Baseline	Means of verification
Partner organisations and target groups that participate in the program (women, youth, workers and migrants) have mobilised themselves to claim their rights.	1. Examples when partner organisations have contributed to a change in policy and /or proposals in the context presented. Target 2019: 6 partner organisations have reported concretely how advocacy or their participation have contributed to a policy change and/or proposal.	1. 4 partner organisations have reported concretely how advocacy or their participation have contributed to a policy change and/or proposal during 2015. For example: CoRMSA has been involved in the work of Department of Home Affairs regarding input to the “white paper” on migration.	1. Annual written reports from partner organisations. Interviews with partner organisations.
	2. Examples when target groups organised themselves to claim their rights as a result of interventions by partner organisations. Target 2019: 45 examples when target groups organised themselves to claim their rights as a result of interventions by partner organisations.	2. There are at least 10 examples when target groups organised themselves to claim their rights as a results of interventions by partner organisations during 2015. For example: As a result of the work of TCOE, local farmers have had face to face meetings with local government officials, written letters to express their objections to the sale of municipal commonage land and even took protest marches.	2. Concrete examples of contributions to or changes in policies brought about by partner organisations. Reports via newspapers, radio, TV etc.

¹ Specific targets for each year are set due to the fact that 5 organisations will be phased out 2016: Cala, Care Alicedale, Dutywa, Tsomo and Zwelitsha. Two more organisations will be phased out 2017: SALO and WWMP.

PALME CENTER'S SOUTH AFRICA PROGRAMME 2016-19

Intermediate Objective 1	Indicators	Baseline	Means of verification
Target groups have increased knowledge concerning their rights.	1. Participants who attended training activities of partner organisations have increased their knowledge. Target 2019: About 80 % of participants state to have increased their knowledge concerning their rights. (Average number for all included partner organisations.)	1. 70 % of participants state they have increased their knowledge concerning their rights. (Average number for all included partner organisations 2015).	1. Participant evaluation /- questionnaires
	2. Target groups have increased access to information which is relevant to their situation and rights. Target 2016: 70 000 individuals from the target groups have been reached by project activities. Target 2017: 64 000 individuals from the target groups have been reached by project activities. Target 2018: 60 000 individuals from the target groups have been reached by project activities. Target 2019: 60 000 individuals from the target groups have been reached by project activities.	2. 41 000 individuals from the target groups have been reached by project activities 2015.	2. Participant lists, Annual written reports from partner organisations, Interviews with partner organisations.
Intermediate Objective 2	Indicators	Baseline	Means of verification
Partner organisations and target groups that participate in the program have increased their capacity to mobilise their respective target/ interest groups.	1. Examples of mobilising, organising and lobbying. Target 2016: 400 mobilising activities (outreach meetings, workshops, demonstrations, petitions, participate in decision making forums etc.) was conducted. Target 2017: 310 mobilising activities (outreach meetings, workshops, demonstrations, petitions, participate in decision making forums etc.) was conducted. Target 2018: 230 mobilising activities (outreach meetings, workshops, demonstrations, petitions, participate in decision making forums etc.) was conducted. Target 2019: 230 mobilising activities (outreach meetings, workshops, demonstrations, petitions, participate in decision making forums etc.) was conducted.	1. 365 mobilising activities was conducted in 2015.	1. Annual written reports from partner organisations. Interviews with partner organisations.
	2. Organisations that participate in the program have a functional organisational capacity as well as a democratic and result orientated approach. Target 2019: Organisational specific targets are set and agreed on, based on every partner's needs. ²	2. Some partner organisations in the program need to develop their organisational capacity. Assessment and agreement for each partnerorganisation.	2. Organisational Assessments.

² The specific targets include for example: functioning board, regular meetings with members/target groups, policies, staff skills, internal skills transference, structured routines for activities, improvement of administrative systems, sustainable funding.

PALME CENTER'S SOUTH AFRICA PROGRAMME 2016-19

Intermediate Objective 3	Indicators	Baseline	Means of verification
Partner organisations and their target groups that participate in the program have increased their influence within the context they work.	1. Organisations that participate in the program have expanded their cooperation with strategic stakeholders in their respective areas. Target 2016: 30 cooperations with strategic stakeholders. Target 2017: 24 cooperations with strategic stakeholders. Target 2018: 21 cooperations with strategic stakeholders. Target 2019: 21 cooperations with strategic stakeholders.	1. In 2015 there were 18 cooperations with strategic stakeholders within the programme. For example: Ikhwezi Women Support Centre has at a local level had cooperation with Amahlathi Safety and Liaison Forum and Amahlathi AIDS Council regarding safety and health issues for women.	1. Annual written reports from partner organisations.
	2. Examples of involvement in proposals or a change in policy in the presented context. ³ Target 2016: 8 examples of involvement in proposals or a change in policy from partner organisations and/or target groups. Target 2017: 8 examples of involvement in proposals or a change in policy from partner organisations and/or target groups. Target 2018: 6 examples of involvement in proposals or a change in policy from partner organisations and/or target groups. Target 2019: 6 examples of involvement in proposals or a change in policy from partner organisations and/or target groups.	2. 4 examples of involvement in proposals or a change in policy 2015. For example: SALO was selected as a member of the Justice and Constitutional Development (DoJCD) National Steering Committee, to draft the National Action Plan to Combat Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance.	2. Interviews with partner organisations.

³ This indicator measures processes, at a local, regional and national level.